[XXIst Year.] THURSDAY, August 7, 1766. [N°. 1091.]

FROM THE LONDON CHRONICLE, of April 19, 1766.

A Copy of a Letter to the Right Rev. Thomas Lord Bishop of Kildare, from Thomas Butler, Esq; of Warminster, in Wilts, concerning a REMEDY for the STONE and GRAVEL.

THE Benefit I received from the Daucus, or Wild Carrot, has been so great, that I thought it my Duty to Mankind to advertise its Virtues, and the Relief I received from it, in the Salisbury Journal, about three Years ago, which was crowned with such high Satisfaction, that I received Intelligence, that it had done great Cures on several People, who took it purely on the Recommendation of my Advertisement.

"I had laboured under that painful Disorder the Stone in the Kidney at least forty-six Years, when, about four Years since, or something more, it became so painful, that I was under an absolute Necessity of quitting my annual Journies into Hants, and seek for Ease by any Means I could find it; but all in vain; it grew upon me so, that I could not sit at Table to eat my Meat, but in the greatest Pain; and finding, by Experience, I could have no more Ease in recumbent Posture, I was obliged to lie down wherever I came, either at home or abroad, and in that Posture I conversed with my Friends, and in that Position eat my Dinner daily, and, in short, I was still followed by such continual Pain, that I expected I had but a short Time to live.

"I had applied to Physicians, Apothecaries, Quacks, and Old Women, and conformable to Directions, I made use of Mr. Stephens's Medicine, and, nauseous as it was, I took about Fourscore Draughts of it, together with a full Dose of the ill tasted Powder, that is a Part of the Recipe; but all in vain: I could find no Relief. In this miserable Condition I recollected I had an Herbal, in which were prescribed Remedies for many Disorders: I providentially looked into it, and found the Wild Carrot strongly recommended by Mr. Boyle. I immediately (it being the 1st or 2d of August) sent a Person into the Fields to get me the Wild Carrot, which was accordingly done; I made it into a Tea, sweetening it with Lisbon Sugar, and drank about two ordinary Tea-pots full in a Day, each Pot containing a full Half-pint, the one for Breakfast, the other for Supper, eating with it as with other Tea, and in three Days Time the Pain began to grow weak and die away, and in 5 Days it quite left me, my Spirits revived, and I was restored (I bless GOD) to perfect Ease.

"I continued drinking this Tea till the 17th of December following, and then idly neglected it; the Disorder returned; I had a short Fit, which held me six Hours: I had again Recourse to my Wild Carrot, and in a few Days got the better of it; since which I have enjoyed great Ease: I cannot say that I never felt Pain in the Kidneys, but this I can aver for Truth, that it is never enough to make me cry Oh! and that I think I never enjoyed better Health than I have done for these four last Years. This is the Time of the Year (August) when I got it. I will only say (though I know not how to have done with this Subject, where almost a Miracle has been wrought in my Favour) that it is to be gathered in August, and dried well in some Room in the Shade, and then put aside in a close Bin for Use: You are only to use the Heads or Seeds of it. I take six or seven Heads, and put them into the Tea-pot, and then put boiling Water upon them, and, after it has stood as other common Tea, drink it, generally dividing it into two Draughts. I forbear all Sorts of Salt-Meats (at least ought to do so) and Strong-Beer I rigidly refrain from; I drink about two or three Glasses of Wine after Dinner, and as much good Table-Beer as I have an Inclination to; I never drink any Thing in a Morning before or after Tea; I drink nothing after Tea in an Evening. It is something forcing, but not violently, so it does not hurt in any kind. You will say, perhaps, I am prejudiced in its Favour, but of this I am confident, I have enjoyed more Ease these last 4 Years than I ever did from the Age of Fourteen, and I find myself in better Health to that Time. I have not made any Bloody, or Coffee-ground Water, no not once since I took the Carrot-Tea, notwithstanding I made such, at Times, for more than twenty Years before. I am, &c.

THOMAS BUTLER."

A Letter from the Reverend the Dean of Kildare.

"SIR,

"On reading Mr. Butler's Letter, I, who had been much afflicted with the Stone, betook myself to the drinking the Wild Carrot Tea; this was in the Month of October last, and since I have drank it, I have not felt any severe Pain; I have sometimes, indeed, uneasy Feelings, but they are the Feelings rather of Weight than of Pain, and generally terminate in my parting with a great Deal of loose Gravel, much more than I was formerly used to part with. Whether this Medicine tends to the Dissolution of a Stone, already concreted, or serves only to prevent a further Concretion, I cannot say; but it is no small Happiness, that whatever its Manner of Operation may be, I have, ever since I drank it, been free from any violent Pain; How long I shall continue so, GOD only knows. I am, &c.

Bath, Dec. 24. PHILIP FLETCHER."

To make DANCUS or DAUCUS ALE.

Take of the Daucus Seeds nine Ounces, Raisins of the Sun eighteen Ounces; put them into a Bag, and hang in a Vessel of six Gallons of good Ale; after it is worked, and when fine, after eight Days drink three Pints a Day.

N. B. The Wild Carrot is to be had in great Plenty, in this and the neighbouring Provinces, and may be gathered the End of July, or Beginning of August.

NAPLES, April 15.

MOUNT Vesuvius broke out on Thursday last, with great Violence, on the opposite Side of its first Eruption; and a new Lava took its Course towards the Torre del Anunciata, between Portici and Pompeia. This Lava is really tremendous, the River of Fire being now at least four Miles in Length, and in some Places near two Miles in Breadth. It has already destroyed three Vineyards, and is continuing its Course slowly, over cultivated Lands, towards the Village of the Anunciata. The Lava, at its Source, and for the first Mile, is as rapid as the River Severn at the Passage near Bristol; but, by extending itself, cools and loses its Velocity, so as not to advance more than thirty Feet in an Hour.

April 22. The Eruption of Vesuvius is more violent than ever. Several Englishmen are come hither Post from Rome, to see the dreadful Spectacle, and to make their Observations thereon.

Warsaw, April 19. Two Circumstances continue to astonish the Public: The one is, that Count Branicki, grand General of the Crown, delays to come and pay Faith and Homage to the King in Person; the other is, that his Majesty hath not yet chosen a Princess to share in his Throne.

Paris, May 2. The Hereditary Prince of Brunswick-Wolfenbuttel is still at Versailles, where the Princes of the Blood and Noblemen of the Court are attentive to procure him every kind of Pleasure. When he was presented to the King, his Majesty received him with more Marks of Distinction than he ever gave to any other foreign Prince.

LONDON, May 20.

Letters from Paris inform us, that the Count de Lally was removed in the Night between the 4th and 5th of this Month from the Bastille to the Prison of Conciergerie (communicating with the Palace) where he refused to go to Bed, and about Seven in the Morning was conducted to the Grand Chamber, which was surrounded on all Sides by the Guards of the Parliament. As soon as he appeared before his Judges, they ordered him to deliver up his red Ribbon, &c. which he took off, seemingly in great Discomposure and Confusion; and being afterwards placed on the Stool to be interrogated, he clasped his Hands, and raised his Eyes towards Heaven, saying, Is this the Reward of Forty Years Service! He underwent an Interrogation of near twelve Hours, during which he was successively confronted by the Marquis de Bussy, and the Count d'Ache; and at Nine the same Evening was remanded to the Bastille, under the Escorte of several Companies of the Guet, and the Guards of the Parliament.

The same Arret which condemned the Count de Lally, cleared the Count d'Ache, and suppressed the Memorials of the former as false and defamatory.

A Letter from Calais, dated May 14, says, "Mons. Lally, who commanded at Pondicherry in the late War, was beheaded last Friday at Paris. The Parliament had ordered the Execution between Eight and Nine at Night; but having some Reason to think he would destroy himself, the Execution was performed at Five; he was drawn in a Cart to the Place of Execution, where a Gag was put into his Mouth, to prevent his choaking himself with his Tongue, which he attempted. His Friends had obtained Leave to bury him according to his Rank; but the Parliament were so incensed, that he was obscurely buried in a little Church in Paris. He was in the 66th Year of his Age."

Letters from Batavia, received in Holland, advise, that the 16th of October last was appointed by that Government, to be kept as a Day of Fasting and Humiliation, to avert the Judgment of the Almighty from that and other Dutch Colonies in the East-Indies, where they were apprehensive of being soon visited by the Plague; a great Number of Persons dying there very fast, supposed to be owing to the sulphurous Stench, and thick black Clouds, which have appeared ever since the Eruption of the Vulcano at Neira.

They write from Madrid, that the Embarkation of the Spanish Troops for Mexico has been set aside, at least for the present, on Account of the Disturbances which have broke out in different Parts of the Kingdom.

A few Days ago, as the Convicts were Passing along to the Water Side, in Order to be Shipped to America, with FIFES Playing before them, Thro' the Wood Laddie, &c. a Gentleman looking on, observed to another, that they were very JOYOUS: To which a Droll Fellow, one of the Convicts, replied, Joyous! Aye, so we are Master, and if you will but go along with us, you will be QUITE TRANSPORTED.

On the 7th Instant, the House of Commons of Ireland waited upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with the following ADDRESS to his Majesty:

Most Gracious Sovereign,

"We your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to approach your Throne, and with all Humility to testify our ardent and inviolable Attachment to your sacred Person and Government; and to implore that your Majesty will suffer us to present to you the universal Prayers of your loyal People of Ireland, in Assistance of the Representations and Endeavours of the chief Governor of this Kingdom, towards inducing your Majesty, in your Royal Beneficence, to return to your faithful Subjects, the Bill transmitted to Great-Britain, for limiting the Duration of Parliament, this Session."

To which his Excellency was pleased to return the following Answer:

"I will immediately lay this Address before his Majesty."

The Hague Gazette of the 14th Instant informs us, that it was thought the Parliament of England would not break up till Advices should be received from America, of the Effects which the Repeal of the Stamp-Act had wrought in that Part of the World.

Edinburgh, May 7. The Lead-Shot Manufacture, which gave general Satisfaction some Years ago in this City, is now re-established, and carrying on with a Success superior to every Thing of its kind in Britain.

Bristol, May 10. We hear from Staverton in Devonshire, that Tuesday last was set apart to celebrate the Repeal of the Cyder-Act. On this Occasion, in a large Field, on an Eminence, the Gentlemen of the Parish roasted Whole a large fat Ox; 30 Bushels of Wheat in Bread, with near 30 Hogsheads of Cyder, were provided for the Poor as well as Rich, on this general Occasion of Joy.

QUEBEC, July 3.

Saturday the 28th ult. at 11 o'Clock in the Forenoon, his Excellency the Honourable Major-General JAMES MURRAY, Eſq; Governor of this Province, embarked on board the Ship Little William, Capt. John Grant, for England: He was attended at the Beach by public Officers, ſeveral of the Religious Orders, Merchants and other Inhabitants. He was attended in Barges to the Ship by Col. Jones, who commands the 52d Regiment and Garriſon, Capt. Morris commanding the Detachment of the 27th Regiment in Garriſon here, and the Officers of their Corps, by Col. Robertſon, Barrack-maſter General of North-America, Mr. O'Brien, Lady Suſan O'Brien, and other Ladies (under a Salute from the Cannon of the Grand Battery) who alſo attended his Excellency down the River, to near the Pariſh of St. Laurent, upon the Iſland of Orleans, where they took Leave, and left the Ship, and his Excellency proceeded on his Voyage, the Wind fair, and the Day fine. His Excellency has to accompany him on his Voyage, Francis Mackay, Eſq; and his Lady, Lieutenant Roſe, of the 52d Regiment, Lieutenant Abbot, of the Royal Artillery, and Mr. Fotheringham.

The ſame Day, at 11 o'Clock at Night, arrived in this City from London, on board the Commerce, Captain Johnſon, Mr. Briand, Biſhop of Quebec, for the Roman Catholicks, who manifeſted on this Occaſion all their Affection for what concerns their Religion. On the Day following, at 5 o'Clock in the Morning, the Bells of all their Churches announced his Arrival to the whole City, which gave ſuch general Satisfaction to the Canadians, that many of them were ſeen to ſhed Tears thro' Joy. It was really affecting to ſee them congratulate each other, wherever they met, and to hear them inceſſantly ſay to one another, It is then true that we have a Biſhop; GOD hath taken Pity of us: And to ſee them afterwards run in Crowds to the Pariſh Church to ſee this Biſhop, whom they look upon as the Support of their Religion, and as a Pledge of the King's paternal Goodneſs to them. In Fact, at the ſame Time that they publicly bleſs the Lord for having given them a Biſhop, they loudly proclaim their Gratitude to his Majeſty for having attended to their Requeſt: It is likely that this Favour conferred on the Canadians by the King, will effectually attach them to the Britiſh Government. It is alſo very pleaſing to them, to have received on this Occaſion the Congratulations of ſeveral Perſons of Note of our Nation, who indeed ſeemed to partake of their Joy. And we doubt not but that the Canadians, who appear to be very ſuſceptible of Gratitude, will by thoſe Means become more firmly united to us.

BOSTON, July 21.

A Mineral Spring has lately been diſcovered at Stafford in Connecticut, which iſſues out from the Root of a Maple Tree, at the Bottom of a Mountain, on the Margin of the Rivulet Whilemantick; the Water of which is very Clear and exceeding Cold; ſome ſay it Taſtes like Ink, others like Epſom Salt, but moſt think it Taſtes like Ruſt of Iron. It operates moſtly by Urine, and generally upon the firſt Drinking makes Perſons feel ſomewhat Sick, and ſome few it Vomits. Was this Spring under proper Regulations, and attended with ſome ſkilful Phyſician to give Directions about uſing the Water, 'tis thought it would be a public Bleſſing; but in its preſent Situation, where it helps ONE, it is ſaid TWO are hurt by it, owing to an abuſe of the Water, which is moſt imprudently uſed by great Numbers, who flock there by Hundreds in a Day, with all Diſorders; and ſome are injudicious enough to drink two Gallons a Day, and when they bathe, to ſtay a long Time in the Water, which is prejudicial.—In Hectical and Conſumptive Caſes this Water is very hurtful; but in Rheumatic Caſes, and contracted Limbs it has done ſome great Cures, of which the following Inſtance may be depended upon.—Thomas Simmons, Mariner, aged 34, had a fever ſettled in his Right Arm, which contracted his fingers ſo that he could not ſeparate them; his Hand was ſtiff as a Bone, and ſo uſeleſs that he could not move a Straw or take up a Feather; he could feel no Pulſe, and his Arm periſhed up to his Elbow: In this Condition he continued 17 Months, being pronounced incurable by ſome of the moſt eminent Phyſicians in New-York, Connecticut and Boſton; but drinking about Three Pints of this Water a Day, and frequently bathing his Arm in it, warmed; his Pulſe returned, his Fingers became flexible, and he ſo far recoved the Uſe and Strength of his Hand, that on the Ninth Day of his uſing the Water, he carried with his lame Hand a Skillet of Five Pound Weight 60 Rods; and on the Tenth Day he wrote his Name in a fair good Hand.

THOMAS & WM. RINGGOLD.

Baltimore County.

NOTICE is hereby given to the preceding Subscribers for Lots of Ground, in a Plan laid out for a Town on FELL's POINT, Patapsco River, to pay their several Arrearages, or they will be proceeded against in the Courts of Justice (tho' much against my Inclination) but, as several Persons have subscribed and entered into Articles for Lots on said Point (thereby depriving others) the Rents thereon lie unpaid, and other Matters not comply'd with, I must take that Method to put such in Mind of what is Justice relating to such Engagements, unless timely prevented.

And whereas some Persons, from penurious Views, have been insidiously industrious in spreading a Report, that the Title to the Lots of Ground on said Point (in Edward Fell) was disputable, precarious and doubtful, in order to intimidate Strangers, and as much as in their Power prevent every one from taking or improving Lots on the Point; this is to give Notice to the Public, that the Subscriber will give Attendance on said Point, and will clear up the Title to every generous and unbiased Mind to be good. Other Means have been made use of to prevent the Settling of Fell's Point, as the Water bad (and better could not be expected) and the Point not healthy, &c. the former has been proved false to a Demonstration, and the latter the Inhabitants in the Course of last Summer can Answer to, how long they may be favour'd with better Health than their Neighbours, Time only can shew. There are several valuable Lots on the Point that have been heretofore subscribed for, which are now free from such Subscription, and will be Sold or Let to the first that offers, by a Power invested in the Executrix.

For Terms apply to JOHN BOND, for
ANNE FELL, Executrix
(tf5) of Edward Fell.
